Independent Reading Library

First Graders have seen the basic components of text and are slowly building their foundational reading skills while independently exploring new topics. Delve deep into learning about the ocean or get a funny spin on a familiar fairy tale. This collection emphasizes creativity, exploration, and other familiar high-interest topics that every young reader can enjoy.

Emergent readers, illustrated stories, read-aloud picture books, and graphic novels give students a wide variety of differentiated text features and formats to encourage a love of reading. With a mix of fiction, nonfiction, science, social studies, topics and genres, students can make meaningful connections between themselves and the diverse texts.

The library includes a copy of The Daily Five, Second Edition, and The CAFE Book.
